Dominic Talotta graduated from Plainville High School in 1979 and has his undergraduate degree in music education from the Hartt School of Music, 1983. He directs the marching, jazz and concert bands at Plainville High School. He has also been a guest conductor for the CT Southern Region Middle School Jazz Band and the chairman of the Northern Region High School Jazz Band. He is also a very active private brass instructor. Talotta is in his 20th year at PHS, having previously taught for 12 years at Maloney High School in Meriden.

Ken Bagley holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from the Hartt School of Music, a Master of Music degree in Wind Conducting from the University of Connecticut, and a 6th Year degree in Educational Leadership from Sacred Heart University. He has taught all aspects of instrumental music from beginners to high school, since 1992. He currently serves as the Citywide Music Curriculum Coordinator and teaches instrumental music in Bristol since 1997.

The Plainville Community Food Pantry, Inc. is a non-profit outreach agency that provides food, energy assistance, clothing, crisis intervention and referral services to individuals in need. In addition to its regular programs, the pantry offers special programs for the registered children of its adult clients for birthdays, holidays, and back to school time. For more information, please visit www.plainvillefoodpantry.org.
